OUR LOCATION

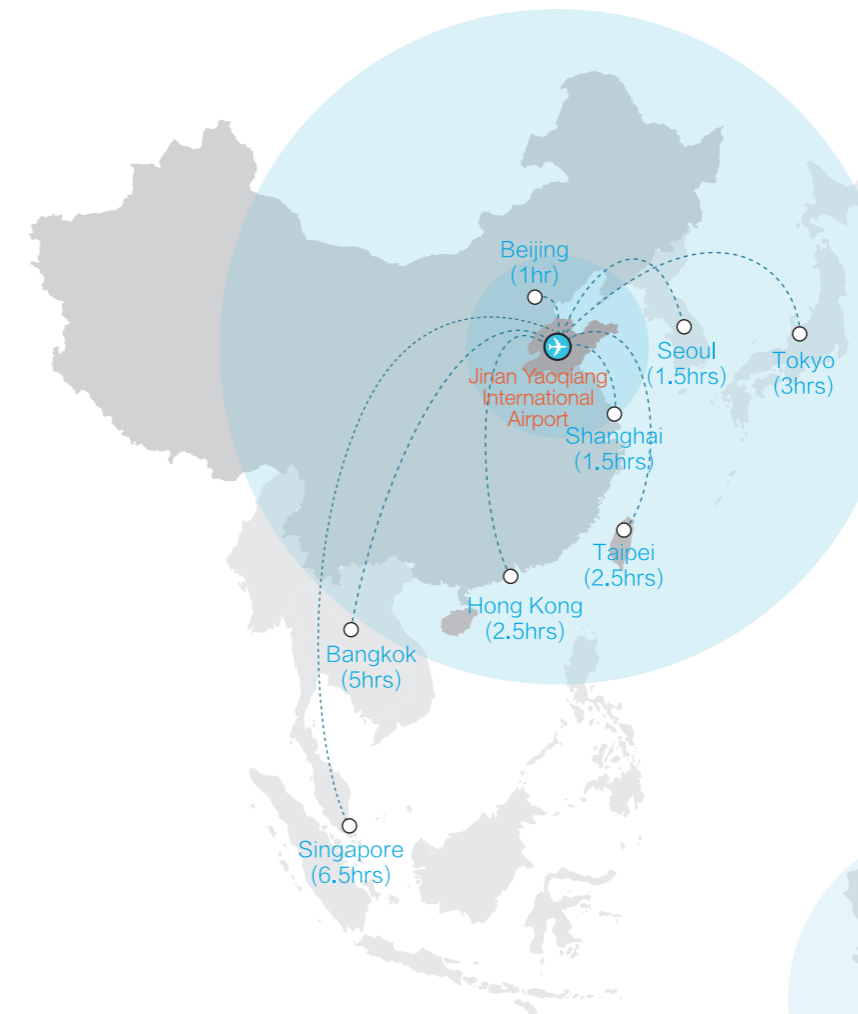

Shandong Normal University is located in Jinan, capital city of Shandong, a province half way between Beijing and Shanghai in East China. The province connects China's far-flung inland with the vast west Pacific and faces across the sea Japan and Republic of Korea. As home to a population of 97.894 million, Shandong covers a land area of 157.1 thousand square kilometers and a marine area of 170 thousand square kilometers. The coastline of Shandong stretches 3,345 kilometers long, accounting for 1/6 of China's total. Shandong has under its jurisdiction 16 municipalities, including Jinan, the provincial capital, and 137 counties (county-level cities, districts).

TRANSPORTATION

Airport

Jinan Yaoqiang International Airport connects about 70 cities both home and abroad, including:

- | | |

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

SDNU began to admit international students as early as in 1983. It is among the first group of universities approved by the Ministry of Education of China to enroll international students, including those supported by Chinese Government Scholarship. SDNU is also among the first batch of universities to enroll international students supported by Confucius Institute Scholarship and provincial government scholarship.

SDNU has welcomed and educated more than 20,000 short-term and long-term international students from over 70 countries and has become a window of Shandong Province to the world. SDNU can provide Chinese Government Scholarship, Confucius Institute Scholarship and Shandong Provincial Scholarship covering both degree and non-degree programs. Short-term training and summer school programs are also open to all international students.

CO-ESTABLISHMENT OF CONFUCIUS INSTITUTE

SDNU has established four Confucius Institutes at Woosuk University in Republic of Korea (2008), Kenyatta University in Kenya (2009), Central Connecticut State University in the United States (2014) and Pará State University in Brazil (2016).

Confucius Institute at Woosuk University

Confucius Institute at Kenyatta University

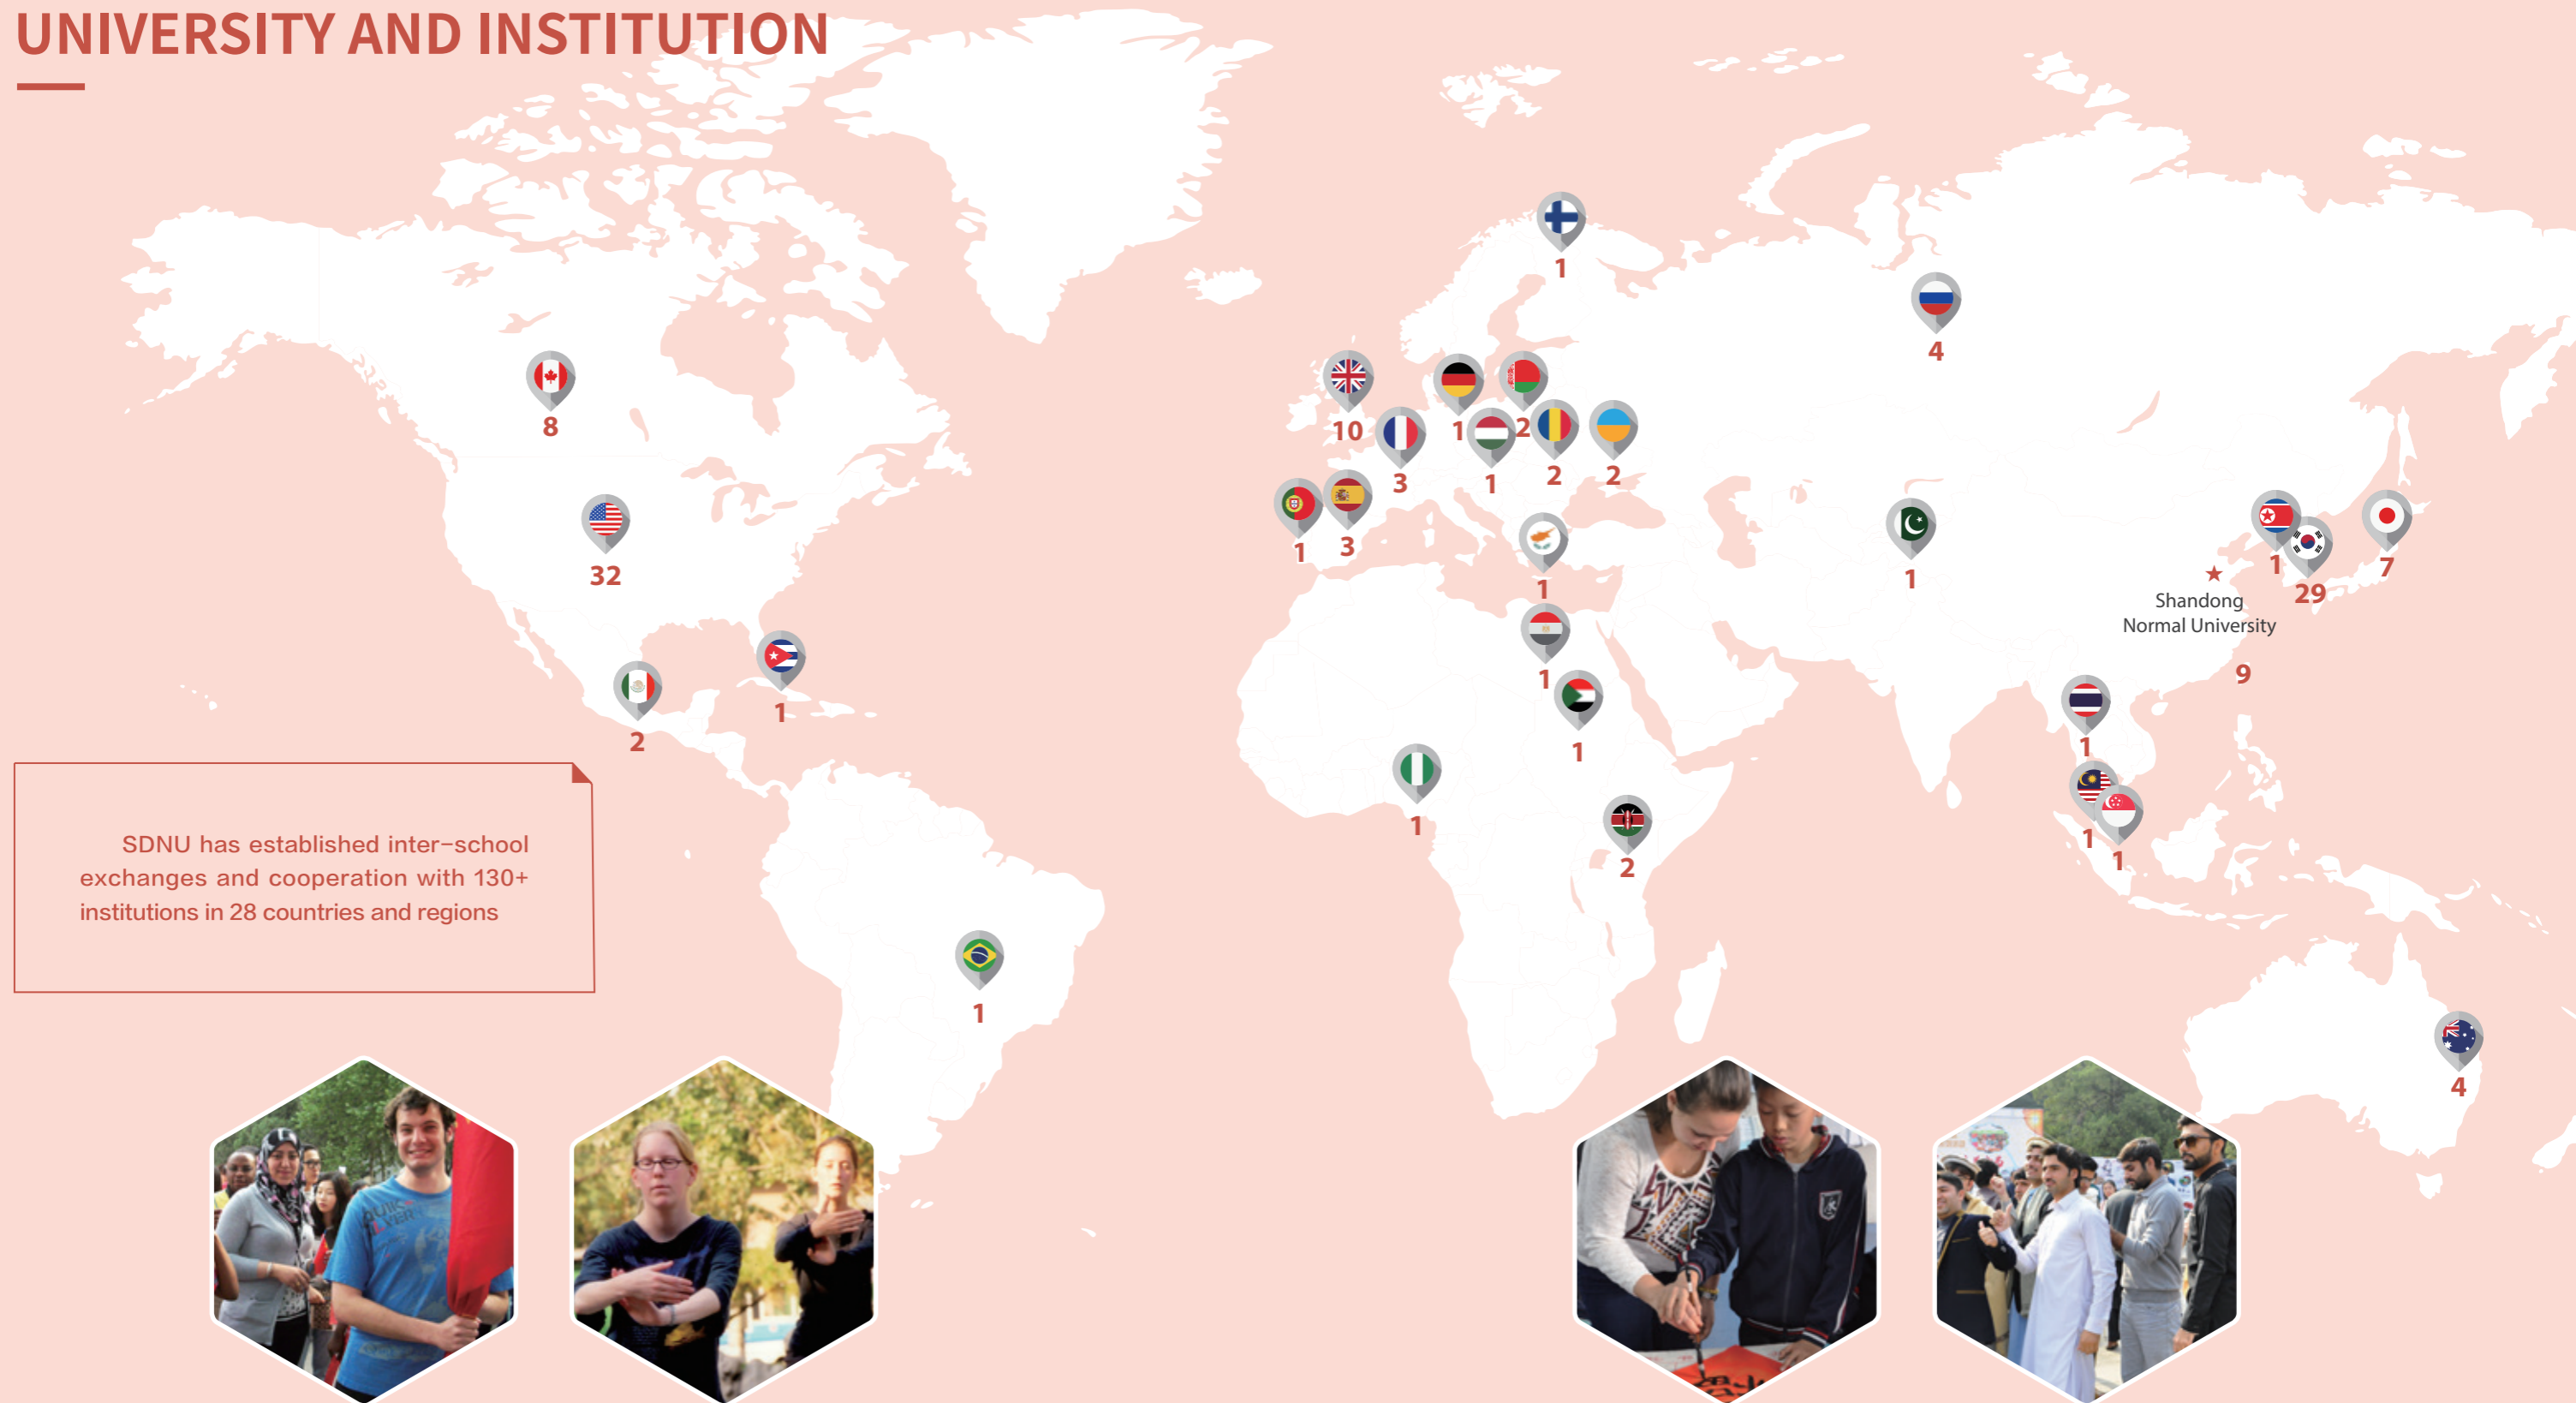

Confucius Institute at Central Connecticut State University

Confucius Institute at Pará State University

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATIVE UNIVERSITY AND INSTITUTION

SDNU has established inter-school exchanges and cooperation with 130+ institutions in 28 countries and regions
